1. INTRODUCTION

Salcon Berhad and its Group of Companies (collectively, the “Salcon” or “Company”) is committed to conduct our business with transparency, honesty and integrity.

This Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy (“the Policy”) draws together the principles which support Salcon’s zero tolerance on any form of bribery or corruption, whether direct or indirect, by or of its stakeholders.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with the Company’s Code of Ethics & Conduct and Whistleblowing Policy.

1.1 OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this policy are to:

- a) Ensure that Salcon has adequate procedures in place to prevent and detect bribery and corruption;
- b) Provide information and guidance to those working for or with Salcon on how to recognise and deal with potential bribery and corruption issues as well as understanding their roles and responsibilities; and
- c) Protect Salcon against the possible penalties and repercussions resulting from acts of bribery and corruption or being associated with such behavior.

1.2 SCOPE

This Policy applies to:

- a) Directors (both executive and non-executive), officers, employees of the Group (including permanent, part-time and contract (fixed-term) employees) (“Personnel”);
- b) Any third party (person or entity) who performs services for or on behalf of the Company. This includes actual and existing clients, customers, contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, advisers, agents, suppliers, vendors, distributors, representatives, service providers, intermediaries and investors (“Business Associates”); and
- c) Join-venture entities in which Salcon has non-controlling interests, co-ventures and associated companies are strongly encouraged to adopt these or similar principles.

1.3 APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

Salcon is committed to conducting its business ethically and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations in the countries where it does business. These laws include but are not limited to the Malaysian Penal Code (revised 1977) (and its amendments), the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 and the Companies Act 2016. These laws prohibit bribery and acts of corruption, and mandate that companies establish and maintain accurate books and records and sufficient internal controls. In cases where there is a conflict between mandatory laws and the principles contained herein and other relevant policies, the law shall prevail.

Under the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 (“MACC Act”), bribery and corruption are criminal offences and the legal consequences include fine of limited amount and/or imprisonment of up to twenty (20) years. A commercial organisation commits an offence if an associated person corruptly gives any gratification with intent to obtain or retain business or an advantage in the conduct of business, for the commercial organisation.

If an offence is committed by a commercial organisation, the section 17A MACC Act 2009 also deems its directors, controller, officer, partner or persons concerned in its management of affairs to have committed the same offence. It is therefore important that you understand how bribery and corruption may be committed and the legal consequences arising from such act as well as to take steps to prevent bribery and corruption from happening.

1.4 DEFINITIONS

Bribery is the offering, promising, giving, accepting or soliciting of an advantage as an inducement or reward for an action which is illegal or a breach of trust. Bribery can take many other forms including cash and non-cash gifts, lavish entertainment or hospitality or other reward or benefit. Bribery takes place if someone is given a gift, donation, loan, cash or non-cash incentive, benefit, or is taken out for particularly lavish hospitality and that in doing so the giver of such items has done so with the intention of inducing or rewarding someone to behave improperly or not to perform their function correctly or in good faith.

Corruption is the abuse of entrusted power for private gain. Essentially, it is the act of giving or receiving of any gratification or reward in the form of cash or in-kind of high value for performing a task in relation to his/ her job description.
